

Landmark Ambassadors

Angus
YOUTH AUSTRALIA

LANDMARK
an ANWB company

Want to be one of four National Angus Youth Ambassadors chosen each year?

They win -

- Ambassador jacket and shirt
- Angus Youth polo shirt and cap
- 12 months Angus Youth membership
- A place at the national Angus Youth Leadership Clinic in February.

Ambassadors are also awarded $500 to put towards their self development in the beef industry. Applications will need to include a proposal, with preference being given to courses that are nationally accredited or beef industry recognised.

Open to: All Angus Australia members aged 16-25 at 1st January 2008, attending the 2008 Landfall Angus Youth National Roundup.

The Ambassador role includes:

- ❖ Taking an active role in their state Angus Youth Committee
- ❖ Being an Ambassador in their state as requested by the state and regional Angus committees (for example, assisting with the manning of breed promotional displays, awarding prizes, and giving presentations)
- ❖ Assisting with the planning and conduct of the Angus Youth program.

The program presents young people with many opportunities to both learn and have fun.

How to apply:

Contact Angus Australia for an entry form and information booklet.
Ph: (02) 6772 3011 or jim@angusaustralia.com.au.

Return completed entry form along with a resume and cover letter stating why you would like to be an Ambassador by 30th November 2007 to: Landmark Ambassador, Locked Bag 11, Armidale, NSW, 2350. Entries received after this date will have points deducted or may not be accepted.

Attend the Landfall Angus Youth National Roundup, in Bendigo, VIC, 10th - 13th January 2008. During this camp you will attend an interview. Selection will be based on your resume and cover letter, the interview, and Roundup involvement. The winners will be announced during the closing ceremony on Sunday.

Angus Youth

Developing beef industry leaders of the future

www.angusyouth.org

PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY

